

Alzheimer's Drug Discovery Foundation

2019 Fall Luncheon & Symposium FAQ's

When and where does the event take place? The event takes place on November 1 at The Pierre (2 East 61st Street). Please enter at the 61st street entrance and proceed up the stairs to the check-in tables.

What time does check in open? Check in opens at 10:00am.

What time does the symposium start? The symposium will start at 10:30am.

What time does the luncheon start? Noon. Doors to the ballroom will open at noon. Prior to the ballroom doors opening guests are encouraged to look at our fabulous door prize items and enter to win one in the Garden Foyer.

What time does the event end? 2:00pm.

Who do I send my guest names or seating requests to? All guest names and/or seating requests should be sent to rsvp@alzdiscovery.org or you can call 201-901-7990.

Who do I send special meal requests to? Please send to rsvp@alzdiscovery.org. We do our best to accommodate each request.

Are there physical tickets to the event? There are no physical tickets to the event. Guests will check in using their last names.

Are tickets available at the door? No. Guests cannot purchase a walk in ticket.

Does my ticket grant me access to the symposium and luncheon? Yes. Everyone who purchased a ticket can attend the symposium and luncheon.

Is my ticket tax deductible? Contributions are tax-deductible less $145 per ticket.

Is the venue handicap accessible? Yes. There is an elevator available.

What is the dress code? Business attire.

Is there a coat check? Yes. The coat check is located right next to registration.

Who is speaking at the symposium? We have three symposium panelists, they are: Krista Lancot, PhD, Dawn Matthews, MS, MBA and Ana Pereira, MD. Guests can read their bios in our event program that is distributed at check-in.

Will there be Q&A at the symposium? Yes, guests will have about 20 minutes to ask questions.

Who is being honored at the luncheon? We are honoring Pamela J. Newman, President and CEO of PJN Strategies LLC. Guests can read Pamela's bio in our event program that is distributed at check-in.

Where can I make a donation to the event? Please visit:

<https://www.alzdiscovery.org/events/event/tenth-annual-fall-symposium-luncheon>